FRANKLIN MARCUS BERRY

"Teaberry"

A 24-mile ride every school day, through snow, sleet, rain, and hail, Teaberry stuck it out and developed an immunity to heat, cold, water, and wind. He hasn't had time for extra curricula activities, but pushing a stalled car through Gill every now and then builds muscles as efficiently as football does. "Teaberry" will have his own garage some day in partnership with "Dick" Dwight.

WAYNE RUSSELL BILLINGS

"Bill"

Twelve miles to school and twelve miles back. That's been Bill's program for three years. A wide-awake man, his ambition is to do nothing until he can take Mr. Leary's position. He has been a good student, a good friend, and a good citizen. Some day he will be a leader in Northfield.

EVELYN McINTOSH BROWN

"Evy"

Intramural Basketball (4); Camera Club (4); Camera Club Charter Committee (4); Glee Club (4).

A vocational boy, "Tom" hails from Gill. He has a good sense of humor that will help him along the road of life.

HERBERT ALFRED CLARK

"Tiny"

"Tiny" came from Turners Falls High at the beginning of his junior year with the idea that he wanted to be an auto mechanic. A few months in the machine shop converted him to toolmaking. When he has his own shop he should be a success, as he is a careful worker.

EDITH JANE COLLER
"Edie"

Yearbook Photography Committee (4); Spring Concert (4); Christmas Concert (4); Archery Club (4). "Edie" has spent many a football game up in the press box, doing her share of spotting. Besides being very active as assistant Girl Scout leader she gets a great deal of pleasure out of belonging to the Glee Club.

BENJAMIN WILFRED COLODNY
"Benjy"

"You Can't Take It With You" (4); Hi-Y (4). No one will forget "Benjy" as "De Pinna" in the Senior Play. His courteous manner has made him a well-liked member of the class. We're confident that "Benjy" will find success as a pharmacist.

THE Class of '48 presented as its dramatic production "You Can't Take it With You", written by Moss Hart and George S. Kaufman. "You Can't Take It With You" is the story of the trials and tribulations of a family that has a touch of insanity in every member with the exception of Alice, the younger daughter. Each member of the family has some peculiar habit. For instance, Grandfather likes to attend graduation exercises and to raise snakes. Mother amuses herself by writing plays or doddling at the art of painting while listening to Father's fireworks blow up. While all this is taking place, Alice is falling in love with Tony, the son of a wealthy family, and is trying to make him realize that all families are not like hers. In the end everything turns out well for all concerned, and Grandfather finally convinces Tony's father, Mr. Kirby, that he can't take his money with him when he dies, but he can take memories of past enjoyable times.

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

Parents, Teachers, Classmates, and Friends:

It is with great pleasure that I, on behalf of the class of 1948, welcome you to our Class-Day exercises. We appreciate the interest you show by your presence here.

Now at the time of our graduation we would like to express our gratitude for the efforts and sacrifices that our parents have made for us that we might complete our secondary-school education. As a consequence of their guidance in our many choices and their encouragement in our activities we have become better prepared for the future.

Furthermore, much credit must be given to our teachers, whom I wish to thank for their assistance to all members of the class. They who have given unselfishly of their time and knowledge have made our present achievements possible. Through their guidance we are now able either to further our education or enter some vocation. Therefore, with the sacrifices of our parents and teachers in mind, we are starting on the ladder of success.

Classmates:

I am grateful to you for having chosen me to represent you in this, our senior year. I have enjoyed what little I have done. I think you all deserve praise for your cooperation for the varied activities in which the class has participated. In times such as these the importance of cooperation is apparent, and we should always try to maintain this attitude in whatever we undertake.

The program today consists of the reading of the Class History, The Class Prophecy, and the Class Will by the authors of each. The students have been selected by their classmates and are worthy of this privilege and honor.

CLASS SONG

MARY JEAN CROWLEY

(To the tune of "The Whiffenpoof Song")

Let us hail our Alma Mater;
Let us sing our last farewell,
While our hearts with mingled joy and sadness swell.
We'll remember Greenfield High School,
We will always sing her praise;
We will cherish her through all our future days.
Greenfield High School, we'll remember
These bright years we've loved so well
In the shelt'ring kindness of your ivied walls.
We will raise a song for Greenfield
With ringing voices clear,
Singing stronger yet, as year fades into year.
Chorus:
Farewell to you now; we must go our way,
Greenfield High,
Forth from your halls and your fields of play,
Greenfield High.
Scholarship, loyalty, honor, truth—
These you have given to light our youth;
Ideals to guide us until we die,
Greenfield High.

IVY ODE

Tune: "Sweet Genevieve"

The ivy that we plant today,
A symbol green will guide our way.
Its tendrils reaching toward the skies,
Enduring all, it never dies.

So like the ivy we will live;
To reach our goal our best we'll give.
Forth on life's path we'll firmly tread,
By false ideals never misled.

O! Greenfield High, as we depart,
We'll always hold you in our heart.
And to this symbol we'll be true,
The ivy that we give to you.

A.D.W. Oh, gee, Miss Devil (short pause), oh, no!! Not the whip! I'm sorry. I was just thinking of the good times we used to have back in G.H.S.

D.D. (musingly) G.H.S. . . . G.H.S. Oh, yes. That's "Smoke High Grade" (brimstone, that is), spelled backward.

A.D.W. (scornfully) No, no, oh, I'm sorry! Put the whip down, please.

D.D. Oh, yes! I remember now. G.H.S. — that's where we got our start down here.

A.D.W. (eagerly) Sure, that's it. Remember that time in "Lou" Bush's room when . . .

D.D. (interrupting) Oh, yes. That was the time we unscrewed the light bulb and "Louie" couldn't figure out why the light wouldn't go on. Boy, was he surprised when he found out why the experiment was a total failure!

A.D.W. Yeah, gee, do you remember the Sophomore Reception our first year in high school? Was I scared when I had to go through that receiving line! Mr. Watt, Mr. Lawrence, Mrs. Studer, and all those others really scared me.

D.D. Yes, but we had no reason to be nervous. Why, didn't we start right out and make "a go of it" with the noise when we helped win the cheering cup?

And just remember "Doug" O'Neil! He almost beat us down here when he ran into that race horse. It must have inspired him, though, for he went right out to win the high jump.

A.D.W. Well, some Sophomores are smart, you know.

D.D. Oh, yeah? Prove it.

A.D.W. All right, I will. How about that "brainy" election when we chose "Doug" O'Neil as president, strong-arm "Bob" Mac-ko for vice-president, trombone-tooting Corinne Golash as secretary, and that deserter, Harriet Rich, for treasurer. Why, come to think of it, she might have absconded with all our money! (pause momentarily) Oh, well, what's the use of money down here. anyway? Getting back to sports, do you remember that "Julie" Akey and Anne Coughlin made the girls' basketball team, and that "Annie", Gloria Petrin, "Betty" Jacobs, Joan Tetreault, and some babe named Jean Derry made the softball team?

What was Derry's batting average, do you know?

D.D. 'Nuff said! But what about some of our other activities? Surely we did something besides play sports.

A.D.W. Oh, sure. Along in January came the mid-year exams, and I'll wager we made some of the upper classmen look to their laurels in order to keep ahead of us! Then, too, we ran quite a successful dance, and certainly you remember the fine work some of our sophomore boys did for the Commencement Dance.

D.D. I'll say! Let's see, you were there; and there were "Don" Black, "Billy" Forbes, "Herb" Elmer, "Dick" Niles, and "Bill" Foster. "Don" Black was treasurer of the "Y" that year, wasn't he?

A.D.W. Yes — I always did wonder how he financed that Glen-plaid suit he blossomed out in that March.

D.D. That is curious. But even more curious was the condition of the class when we returned to school in September of '46. It's awfully strange what a carefree summer can do to an ex-sophomore.

A.D.W. Anyway, we got off to a swell start by electing John Rodd as president, "Bob" Macko as vice-president, Anne Jackson, secretary, and "Dottie" Akey as treasurer. We won the cheering cup again in spite of our exhausted condition, and, even if we did lose the track meet, we frightened Turners out of ten year's growth.

D.D. Don't forget the fabulous football foursome — Macko, Rodd, Harris, and Peters. They looked like two horsemen and a couple of mules for the Notre Dame team.

A.D.W. Gloria Petrin and "Katie" Erisman helped the poor little sophomores get acquainted — and who could do it better?

D.D. Oh, we were really "sharp" for our dances that year! Remember those "snazzy" waiters at our Junior Prom? They really looked "chic" in their mothers' aprons, but what sent me was "Gene Krupa" Minott's floor show.

A.D.W. Those dances were really something, all right, but, to go from the sublime to the ridiculous, I remember how lonesome I was as the only Junior boy in Pro Merito.

D.D. You did look pretty foolish, but "Tony" Sturtevant, "Lennie" Harris, "Dick" Niles, "Babe" Gochinski, "Moe" Peters, and "Shamrock" Warshawsky were right at home on the basketball floor. They were quite a help to "Danny" Dyer in his first year at G.H.S.

A.D.W. Talking about boys, wasn't that the first year we had a boys' Glee Club at G.H.S.?

D.D. I guess so. "Herb" Elmer and Francis Fontaine got a chance to show to the school what charming voices they had in the musical show that year, and they really shone — I mean boomed forth.

A.D.W. Say, that reminds me — wasn't "Red" Newhall a riot as an old fashioned end-man . . . dead-end that is? "Julie" Akey was perfect as Carmen, too! (pant, pant) Quite a trio, that Akey, Coughlin, and Petrin! What would Miss Johnson have done without them?

D.D. I'm sure I don't know. "Pete" herself was quite something. She stood out again when she, "Ruthie" Drew, "Katie" Erisman, and little old Apprentice Devil you were the only Juniors to make Silver-G.

A.D.W. Ah-h-h-h! Let's talk about something more interesting than I.

D.D. (interrupting) That's easy.

A.D.W. (quickly) Shhh? You'll make me blush! Something really interesting was the way "Joe" Tetreault, "Duffy" Dufraine, and "Frenchy" Gagnon carried the baseball team to repeated victories.

D.D. Well, that's about all we did in our Junior year except for the laughs we got when the Seniors staggered down the aisle after their diplomas and the thrill we got out of ushering at Commencement.

A.D.W. Not only that, but also we got a line on what to expect for ourselves. I learned a good method to tip over the palms on the stage as last year's Juniors will testify.

D.D. Yes, and after two inconspicuous years we were invited to be Seniors and awarded the front row of parking spaces at Poet's Seat, the swimming pool, and the pumping station.

A.D.W. "Bill" Forbes certainly took quick advantage of that privilege!

D.D. "Bob" Macko really put Greenfield

on the football map again. He was selected for the All-Western Massachusetts team for the fourth straight year.

A.D.W. Our Senior play made a big hit, too. "Ben" Colodny anticipated by three months the "new look" in his ballerina sheet. I thought everyone turned in such a fine job that the play was worthy of any Broadway production. The class really was on the ball that year. Those officers — John Rodd, "Bob" Macko, Pauline Ament, and Marilyn Johnson — were elected through sheer genius.

D.D. Well, "natch". But don't forget the student council. The Senior members did a swell job all year. By the way, I understand that trip you made to New Bedford was quite a deal.

A.D.W. Well, in a way, yes. I think that's what gave me my start down here. Of course I had started on the long path downward around Thanksgiving time. A few of us fellows made quite a mark on the Turners Falls football field.

D.D. Oh, yes! I remember that. Who put that "G" on the field, anyway?

A.D.W. Well, of course there was daring, brave FOOLISH little me. Also there were "Don" Black, "Red" Newhall, and "Bill" Forbes. I don't think "Bill" ever got all the lime out of his rumble seat.

D.D. Well, I suppose you four would have wanted to take credit for winning the game if "Tony" Sturtevant hadn't run all over the field to intercept that pass and gallop for a touchdown?

A.D.W. I'll say! . . . "Tony" took it all very calmly, though. All in a day's work, I suppose.

D.D. I think we ought to mention that Christmas dance the Vocational boys put on. That was one of the most successful dances of the season.

A.D.W. Oh, I remember that! "Herbie's" Serenaders made a big hit as an orchestra.

D.D. To continue with success, do you realize that the girls' basketball team was undefeated again? That record of sixteen straight games was really something!

A.D.W. Girls, girls, girls — (sigh), just look at the boys. They had their most successful basketball season in years. I'll never forget what "Angels" they made out of the "Red Devils" from Westfield.

D.D. Wasn't "Louie" Iorio on that basketball team? He became a very successful printer after he recovered from his broken toe.

A.D.W. Yes, so I heard. "Louie" cut quite a figure around the school in our Senior year. Incidentally, he almost broke up the musical show with his "ad-libs" on curtain-pulling. He didn't, however, because the show really was swell!

D.D. Yes. I especially liked "Betty" Morvant, Jane Jebb, "Dick" Hurlburt, "Dick" Minott, and the chorus line of policemen.

A.D.W. Oh, yes . . . chorus lines. That's my favorite subject. Those dancing girls would have done credit to any old Howard show.

D.D. (quickly) About that time the class showed its headwork again. They chose some pretty "sharp" characters as prophets, will-makers, and, of course, historians.

A.D.W. You can say that again! I'll never forget sitting down the night before the dead-line and writing this epic!

D.D. Yes, that was really something. We finally did finish, though, and entered Commencement with our heads high.

A.D.W. Except the day after the banquet, that is!

D.D. Everybody finally got his diploma, anyway, and do you know, you're the first class-mate I've met in 29,000 odd years?

A.D.W. Oh, thanks, Miss Devil. That reminds me, I've got to pick up "Bill" Forbes. It seems to be that he was all set to go the other way, but "Don" Black got married at the last minute, and the wedding celebration was just too much of a temptation for "Bill".

D.D. Oh, no, you don't! Get back to shoveling that coal!

A.D.W. Oh, no! Not the whip! No, no, no — (fading into distance).

CLASS PROPHECY

KAY MYERS FLEMING

JOHN GEORGE deLYRA

Time: June, 1996

Place: File room of the "Greenfield Hobo Gazette"

Characters: Algernon and Louella

Lou: Have you got a light, Algy? It's dark down here!

Algy: Here you are. It's one of those New-hall jet-propulsion lighters.

Lou: A jet-propulsion lighter! I haven't seen one of those for years. Where did you get it?

Algy: Oh, I picked it up at the Joseph Polo Memorial Museum. It's full of old relics.

Lou: Speaking of old relics, the chief will kill us if we don't hurry and look up those records he wanted. It's about time Old Man Iorio retired, anyway. Imagine being editor of the "Hobo" at nearly seventy! That reminds me, I forgot to get him some of those "Ma Hoadley's Hotshot Pills".

Algy: Take it easy, Lou; I found that story on the 1968 elections. Here it is.

"Macko Elected Mayor. Honest 'Bob' Macko became mayor of Greenfield by an overwhelming majority. Celia Peters was elected first woman Health Commissioner while the closest contest of the day was won by 'King Rex' Rodd over 'Injun Joe' Tetreault. Rodd says he will be happy to assume his duties as dog catcher as soon as 'Art' Beaudoin, present official, vacates the office."

Lou: Let me see that picture on the other side, Algy. Listen, here's the caption. "Teachers Ready To Enter New School Building. Principal Ann Jackson and Miss Janet Weir, teacher of chemistry, physics, and biology, smile as they prepare to take up their duties in the new high school building. Architects for the new structure were Walter Hitt and Roxana Wyatt, who also drew the plans for Rita's Night-club.

Algy: Hey! Here's an old sports clipping, "Greenfield Girl Wins Weight-Lifting Title. Miss Betsy Abercrombie happy queen as she budes 'Man Mountain' Maniatty to lilting strains of 'Do-Do's Dolls' featuring Miss Merritt and the three dolls — Phyllis Oakes, Jane Burns, and 'Margie' Murley."

Lou: Look, there's the society section. Here's a story about a wedding.

"Miss Nancy Haskell became the bride of Mr. Richard Earle Archer in a double-ring ceremony at ten o'clock this morning. The service was conducted by the Reverend Reginald Anderson. The bride was attended by a maid of honor, Miss Eunice Aiston, noted palm reader, and three bridesmaids — the Misses Evelyn Brown, Constance Adams, and Jennie Dzierzonawski, Hollywood starlets, who were classmates of the bride. The best man was Mr. John Germain, librarian of Congress. Ushers were William Foster, Dean of Elm Street College, and Raymond Tuttle and Douglas O'Neil, founders of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Coalmen." Oh, Algy, an old-fashioned wedding! Isn't that romantic?

Algy: Never mind that! Let's get going on those statistics before the old man gets after us.

Lou: Wait a minute. It's fun to look at these old papers. Some of these stories really make you laugh.

Algy: Yes, this one's pretty good.

"Professor Nathaniel Ireland searches whole world for Missing Link and returns to find it sitting on back porch." Boy! Those must have been rugged days.

Lou: You know, Algy, my grandmother once told me that she knew the man who organized the first big-league baseball team in Greenfield. I think his name was Blum. See if you can find anything about it.

Algy: Here's a clipping that sounds like what we're looking for. It's dated 1966. "Greenfield Group Forms First Co-ed Big-League Team. This new team, managed by 'Ben' Blum, promises a great season with 'Frenchy' Gagnon pitching, Joyce Houston catching, and 'Harry' Schryver at shortstop. 'Hippo' Shea and 'Big Dave' Sherman will be right and left fielders, with 'Skinny' Skinner patrolling center-field. Infield positions will be ably covered with 'Larry' Warshawski at first, Anne Wood at second, and 'Jerry' Keller at third."

I wonder how they did that season? Judging by the looks of the people in this picture, I think it's a shame they didn't know about vitamin "Brainium" in those days.

Lou: Let me see it. What's that on the back of it?

Algy: It's an "ad" for Hurlburt's Fife and Drum Corps

"Herbie toots the fife;
Niles eats a plum;
Minott irks your wife,
While Baxter beats the drum"

Gad, who thought that one up?

Lou: I wouldn't know, but that Fife and Drum Corps sounds like a riot. Here's one that's right up my alley. "It Pays to Be Ignorant" broadcast from Greenfield. Quizmaster, Irene Thouin proudly acclaims Greenfieldites most brilliant contestants. Heard on the program were Catherine Galipault, Phyllis Jarvis, Beverly Kimball, and Marilyn Johnson. Because of their outstanding ability these girls were selected to comprise the new board of experts on 'Information Please'."

Algy: Lou, this one's about a fire out on the Meadows.

"The home of Mr. Edward Sexton, former bullfighter, was damaged by fire last night while he was entertaining guests. Mrs. Dorothy Comins Sexton put in the alarm, and a hook and ladder reached the scene shortly after. Fire Chief 'Ray' McMahon personally rescued ballet dancer Carolyn Stotz as she was demonstrating a new pirouette to Evelyn Stratton, 'warbler' at 'Bill' Winseck's nightclub on Route 2. Assistant Chief 'Bob' Sturtevant remained by the truck and directed the volunteers. Insurance assessor Edward Oates, more commonly known as 'Beagle, the Legal Eagle,' estimated the damage at $6,000. The fire is said to have started in a basement room where a scientist friend of the Sextons, Robert Wait, was experimenting with nitroglycerine."

Nitroglycerine? That must have been an old-fashioned kind of cleaning fluid or something, don't you think?

Lou: Most likely. Here's one that's priceless, Algy.

"Popular Opera Star Dashes Director With Pail of Water. Juliette Akey, featured soprano with O'Hare's Opera Company, became temperamental at rehearsal yesterday and doused director Ernest Hohengasser with a pail of water. Hohengasser had reprimanded the singer for distracting the attention of the all-male chorus."

I guess the girls really had appeal then.

Algy: Let's read the rest of the theater page.

"Now playing at Cheney's Chinese Theater, 'Pat' Goulart, the Atomic Blonde, in the Colodny Colossal Production, 'Ma, He's Kissin' Me'."

Now, there's a thrill!

Lou: I wonder what this column is.

"The 'Hobo' hears that 'Dixie' Horne, celebrated disc jockey and star of the 'Yawn Patrol' program, heard daily at 5:35 A.M., will lecture at the high school assembly this week. Mr. Horne's subject will be 'What I like About Women' Swooners will be Shirley Boudreau and Janet Darling."

Algy: Here's another one.

"The 'Hobo' hears that a school for the development of the 'Build Beautiful' will open its doors to a limited number next Monday. Those wishing to enroll should write to Carroll Sak, Box 366, 'Hobo Gazette'."

Lou: He was probably Mr. America of 1958.

This one sounds good. "Greenfield girl perfects invention for weak-handed basketball players. Is your dribble droopy? Buy 'Hendrick's Hooks' for the dribble with a dash!"

I'd hate to work in the patent office. They say that crack-pot inventions like that still come in every day.

Algy: This one's really weird.

"Mr. Waldo Allen of this city demonstrated his skill in contacting ghosts last night at the home of John Falvey, mortician. Mrs. Falvey, the former Anna Mae Gibson, assisted by sitting on the piano with a wax image of Henry the Eighth on her lap. The medium was Miss 'Pat' Jusiewicz, noted nuclear physicist, who after a short time began a weird jibbering and finally stated she was Henry the Eighth. Harry Fortin, pin-ball machine manufacturer, was skeptical and claimed he could get the same result with the currently popular 'Green Perfume'."

What a bunch of quacks! That must have been just before Ruth Drew invented her electronic fortune-telling machine.

Lou: Hm! This is interesting.

"The firm of Derry and Davenport, architects, has completed designs for a new nightclub to be operated by 'Ronnie' LaPalme. Contractors William Calnan and Thomas Campbell will start construction on the site of the old 'Corner Store'."

"LaPalme has a great floor show lined up with Nancy Roberts' traveling troupe, featuring the Barber Twins, Mae and Marie. Also there will be 'Red' DeNofrio and his jug-juggling act. Costumes are to be designed by Marguerite Miner, who was responsible for the success of 'Peasant Blouses for the Patrician'."

"Marilyn Loveland and Jean Mattis, hill-billy singers, who were recently with the 'Bingville Barn Dance' radio show, will present their distinctive yodeling with that sophisticated touch."

That sounds like quite an outfit.

"Freak Accident on High Street. While John Margola and Walter Letourneau were starting their motorcycle race over cables strung between the Weldon Hotel and Poets' Seat, a plane piloted by 'Moe' Peters accidentally hit the wires and broke them. Circus strongman, Paul O'Connor, caught one of the machines while the other plunged through the roof of a car driven by Nancy L. O'Neil. The car swerved and hit a fire hydrant. Passenger 'Pat' O'Hara escaped injury but lost a caseful of false teeth she was selling. Another passenger, Arlene Murphy, was thrown a block and was finally found reciting 'Hamlet'. She is being treated for shock."

Lou: Speaking of 'Hamlet', here's a review of a play that was showing at Ye Olde Victoria Theater in 1956.

"George deLyra, brilliant producer, presented last night for the first time in New England that famous farce, 'Ladies' Disagreement'. Seen in the starring roles were Rena Cromack and Lois Renfrew. Donald 'Duffy' Dufraine was well received by the audience as the subject of the disagreement."

"The play will be given again tonight with Clara Sestili and Virginia Gexler in the featured roles, as last night's 'ladies' became a little too violent in their disagreement. 'Dancing Duff' will continue merrily as before."

Algy: You mean reporters got paid for that kind of stuff? I was born twenty years too late! Here's the column for me — "Aunt Chick's Advice to the Lovelorn. Address letters to Miss Coughlin, c/o 'Hobo Gazette'."

Lou: Now, Algy, this is no time to discuss your love life.

Algy: O.K. Here's something intellectual. "Greenfield Woman Awarded Nobel Prize for Science."
"Cecilia Machaiek received the Nobel Award for the outstanding scientific achievement of the year. Miss Machaiek has discovered a way to weld the atom back together again."

Lou: Here's an announcement in the advertising section.
"First National Stores, Inc., to change hands. This concern has been bought out by the industrialist, James M. Varilly. He will retain Ellery Leitch as Vice-President in charge of Floor-Sweepers."

Algy: Come to think of it, Varilly was the first Greenfield Captain of Industry. It wasn't long after, though, that Marilyn St. Cyr started her chain of department stores, "Fashions for Saint and Sinner." Catchy name, huh?

Lou: Look at this headline.
"Elmer and Emond Circus Coming to Greenfield. Circus will feature thirty great acts. Headliners will be Rita Doucette, David Dwight, and Dorena Gilbert, bareback riders. They will be followed by 'Don' Black and Rita Bergeron, trapeze artists. A special attraction this year will be 'Bill' Forbes and his dancing girls — Betty Jacobs, Ann Kurtz, and 'Gerry' Landers. Come one, come all to the New Municipal Fairgrounds, owned and operated by Hans Karl Jobst."

Algy: You know, Lou, there's been some really famous people who came from this town.
Listen to this, for instance.

"Greenfield Man New Chief of Federal Bureau of Investigation."

"Robert Gay, well-known gangbuster of this city, will leave for Washington next week to assume his duties as Chief of the F.B.I. He will take with him as assistants — John Gardner, Robert Irwin, and Raymond Jarvis also of Greenfield. Gay was responsible for the smash-up of the 'Dixie-cup Racketeers' — Wesley Purple, Helen Nowak and Frank Domitrz."

Yes, sir, there were a lot of public-spirited men in this town.

Lou: Greenfield made movie fame too. I found this clipping from the 1960 "Hobo."
"Life of Famous Dancer to be Filmed. Hollywood looking for talented newcomer to play title role in 'Glorious Gloria' or 'The Petrin Story.' Being considered for the part is Nancy Roberts Widdison. Miss Widdison's father is the popular Greenfield policeman, while her mother, the former Nancy Winder, will be remembered as the free-style swimming champion of 1953."

Algy: Here's an interesting item.
"Greenfield Woman Invents New Typewriter. Miss Pauline Ament, having perfected her electronic typewriter, has signed a contract with the firm of Berry and Barrett for its construction. Miss Jane Eaton and Mr. Francis Fontaine, champion typists, demonstrated the machine by putting on a cap connected to it. Messages from the brain are relayed to the machine and automatically typed."

Lou: Here's another success story.
"Local Girl Makes Good. A new magazine covering the musical world from 'longhair' to 'lowdown' will reach the stands by the first of July. Katherine Erisman, ex-concert pianist and composer of the brilliant 'Symphony for a Schmoë', is publisher and editor-in-chief."

Algy: This one's for me — WANT ADS.
"For aid in writing a best-seller — bachelor girl would like the male point of view. Apply: Dorothy Peroski."

Lou: Stay where you are — that was twenty years ago. Here's a better one for you, anyway.

"Chef wanted: apply to 'Golash's Goulash'.
"Home wanted: for one of Scott's talking scottie dogs. These dogs, having been personally trained by Miss Scott, are well-bred and have an excellent vocabulary."

Algy: Oh, boy! A murder story. No, it's just somebody that took an over-dose of Duprey's Dope Gum. The paper states that the body had to be floated down river from Jebb's Jive Academy. "Don" Jarvis and "Frannie" Gochinski, two of Miss Jebb's tap dancing students, assisted in loading the corpse on to a "bull fiddle."

Lou: What tragedy — or comedy!
Another musical note — "Juke box fans will be interested in learning of the purchase of a new set of records for the machine at Edward Godzinski's Cafe Society Hamburger Shoppe on Cheapside Bridge. No slugs or salted pennies allowed."

Algy: There were more darn inventors in Greenfield. Listen to this "ad;":

"Mother, is your baby restless, hard to amuse? Buy one of Gardner and Grandmaison's Gizmos for Geeks. These gadgets are guaranteed to scare junior to sleep." Here's another one.

"Watch for the new 1960 model overdrive soon to make its appearance. This car was designed by Margaret Edmonds and is the simplest automobile ever to reach the market. It has no fenders, no doors, no bumpers, no wheels."

Lou: You think that's bad — lend an ear to this.

"Irene Godlesky and Evelyn Edes will bring Willie, their talking penguin, to the next meeting of Alta Haskins Society for the Improvement of Relations with the Antarctic.

"Willie was discovered on the last trip to the South Pole made by John Dziekonski and Robert Roberge, local furriers."

Algy: I don't remember ever hearing about a talking penguin, do you? Here the "Hobo" states that Mary Ann Paquette and "Betty" Miller have devoted their efforts evolving a sure-fire method for removing chewing gum from desks and office appliances. The system was demonstrated to employees of the W. F.

Mosher's Animal Cracker Co. by attractive cover girl, "Dot" Smith.

Lou: That must have been before "Rosewarne's Universal Solvent" was made. That stuff was so good they claimed it could take the moisture out of water.

I wonder what this is supposed to mean.

"Ronald Picknell won the square-dancing contest held at Janice Osgood's barn yesterday, where a party was given for Nancy M. O'Neil, number one motorcycle racer of the country. Another event at the party was a unique trio arrangement of the beloved ballad 'Barbara Shippey was the Pride of Bingville' as rendered by 'Betty' Morvant, Joan Shulda, and 'Dotty' Phillips."

Algy: Here's a striking headline!

"'Bernardson Blackie' Blames Detective. Leland Arthur, 'Bernardston Blackie' Black, named illustrious sleuth, Mary Donovan, as the direct cause of his capture by police. 'Blackie', aided by the international jewel thief, 'Army' Armstrong, succeeded last week in gaining possession of the Sturtevant sapphire. The gem, now owned by Jane Arnesen, department store owner, was discovered by Joyce Sturtevant, the archeologist.

'Blackie' has outwitted the police many times with the aid of his shrewd lawyers, Dembek and Dickerman, but Inspector Wayne Billings says that he has 'Blackie' for sure this time."

Lou: Gee, people still talk about "Bernardston Blackie." Look at this "ad." — "Coller's Course for Cuckoo's. Does the cuckoo in your clock have unrecognized talent? Send him to Coller's, where he will be taught how to say 'cuckoo' with personality." Oh, brother!

Algy: Here's another one: "Bergeron's Beauty Shop can give you that Toujours Allure look. Located in the modern, convenient Bourget Building, Marjorie Bergeron's shop features the 'Wisenski Cold Wave' and the 'Zon Zenith Machine Permanent'."

Lou: Say, would you like to fly? You can, according to this "ad". "Learn to fly from Akey, the Aviatrix. Register now at Astell's Airport and ride into the wild blue yonder in only three short lessons. Boys under twenty-one years must be accompanied by their mothers."

Algy: For a change, here's something about the political scene.

"Massachusetts Senator, Mary Jean Crowley, will start next month her campaign for the Presidency. A reception and dinner in Senator Crowley's honor will be held at John Doherty's Duck Inn. A gala evening has been planned with entertainment by the 'Sewer City Four' — Bousquet, Tyler, Washer, and Clark. This quartet, ably managed by Arthur Wait, will be remembered for their serenading of the champion flag pole sitter of the world, Francis Streeter, when he made a two-week appearance at Poet's Seat. "Kay" Fleming, whose career as a musician has been limited to playing second musical comb for the Choral and Chowder Society, will also appear on the program."

Lou: Here's a bit of Industrial News!
"Althea Watts, mechanical genius of Greenfield, will start a new machine-manufacturing company," announces secretary, Sophie Wollander. This new company will be incorporated under the name of the "Snazzy Chassis Machine Manufacturers." Joan Tetreault will be their vice-president in charge of propaganda.

Algy: Say, do you realize what time it is? We've been down here over an hour browsing through these files. We'll be browsing for a job if the "boss" gets wise.

Lou: I've been thinking . . . we've read enough items here to write a history of Greenfield's famous citizens. Why don't we?

Algy: You know that's not such a bad idea.

Lou: It's a GOOD idea! Let's go tell our "ex-boss" we're quitting.

Algy: O.K., Lou, Ladies first!

We, the class of 1948, of Greenfield High School, county of Franklin, and state of Massachusetts, being of sound body, but of unsound mind and memory, do hereby make, publish, and declare this to be our last will and testament, hereby revoking any will or wills heretofore made by us.

We give, devise, and bequeath our classrooms all the way from the print shop to the typing rooms to the chemistry lab, the well-worn textbooks (what's left of them!), and the memories of many enjoyable hours in detention and elsewhere to the classes of 1949 and 1950.

First, to Mr. Watt we leave a pair of opera glasses so that he can see the Sophomores sleeping in the last row of the balcony.

"Barb" Hendrick leaves her love of moron jokes to "Glo" Martino.

THE Student Council, which is the executive branch of the student body, has been very effective this year in guiding and stimulating interest in school activities. The council this year supported a campaign to secure funds which were set aside for the expenses of the cheerleaders. The question of organizing a Parent-Teacher-Student Association was discussed at several meetings, and, as a result, the Junior-Senior P. T. A. voted to add students to their membership on a trial basis next year.

Second row — Director W. S. Jeffs, Dorothy Akey, Co-Captain Juliette Akey, Rosemary Cotton, Joanne Holley, Shirley Underwood.

UNDER the capable direction and guidance of Mr. William S. Jeffs the cheerleaders of this past year gave excellent performances at all home games and at the majority of out-of-town games. Sporting very snappy uniforms, this group of girls helped to keep the spirit of the students at a high pitch. Pep, vim, and vigor were outstanding in all cheerleaders. We were fortunate to have such a spirited and well-trained group of girls to cheer our teams to victory.

The cheering squad consisted of 4 seniors; Co-captains Gloria Petrin and Juliette Akey, Marilyn St. Cyr, and Dorothy Akey: 3 Juniors; Janet Zalenski, Rosemary Cotton, and Joanne Holley: 3 Sophomores; Riella Emery, Shirley Underwood, and Betty Ann Babcock.

OUR musicians, under the leadership of Mr. W. S. Jeffs, have really been a success this year.

Under the name of the "G.H.S. Sextette", they supplied the musical background of "Do You Remember?"

The orchestra has played for Kiwanis and Rotary Clubs, for the football banquets, and at P. T. A. Meetings and school assemblies. It is a feature of the graduation exercises.

These activities make this club one of the most popular and interesting clubs of our school.

BAND

THE Greenfield High School Band certainly proved themselves able to get down to work and turn out some good listening music. They did not have an opportunity to go to many out-of-town games, but in their new uniforms the school was certainly proud of the band at the home games.

TRACK TEAM

Third row — Coach Danny Dyer, James Stamatopulos, Lenard Harris, James Harris.

A SPIRITED Greenfield High School track team under the fine coaching of Danny Dyer just missed capturing the track cup at the Franklin County Fair events. The team placed in every event but the relay race, which was the deciding factor in the meet, which was lost by just two points. Outstanding for the Green Wave were “Bunny” Rosewarne, “Len” Harris and “Ronnie” LaPalme. Others that placed in various events were “Moe” Peters, “Moose” Godzinzki, “Bob” Wait, “Jim” Harris, “Doug” O’Neil, and “Bob” Macko.

The team also competed in the Western Mass. events which were held in the late spring.

FOOTBALL

A spirited Greenfield High School football team went through another successful season under the able coaching of "Ump" Nichols, "Stan" Benjamin, "Danny" Dyer, Earl Richardson, and Potter Smart. Due to the inexperience of the team, followers of the "Greenies" predicted a bad season, but they were surprised after seeing the first few games.

For the first game of the 1947 football season the Taptowners journeyed to Pittsfield to meet a highly favored Pittsfield eleven. With good teamwork and fine spirit Greenfield outplayed the home eleven as they tied 6-6, coming within inches of a winning touchdown. "Doug" O'Neil's polo catch set up the tying score.

The second game was with Drury and was played at Beacon Field. This game proved to be a hard fought victory for the Green Wave. The blue clad warriors of Drury played a good game, but Greenfield outscored them 12-7. Outstanding was the running of "Dixie" Horne and the defensive work of "Nook" Burniski.

Eager to remain in the win column Greenfield next played a favored Eastern Mass. eleven, Wakefield. The good condition of the "Greenies" proved to be a decided asset in downing Wakefield 13-2. The line played savagely as they opened gaping holes for Howie Burns and held Wakefield on the one-foot line.

Greenfield played its fourth game under the arcs at Northampton. The "Greenies" played brilliantly in the first quarter to score twice but couldn't get rolling in the rest of the game, and the score remained 13-0. "Moe" Peters was a shining light on offense and defense in the team's third win.

At the next game, which was played in Century Stadium, Springfield, the Green Wave literally exploded as "Lenny" Harris outran Springfield Tech to ring up two touchdowns in the 28-7 victory. "Bob" Macko came through with perfect kicking in this game.

In the 6th game the high school eleven kept up its high scoring streak while outrunning an Oneonta, N. Y. team, 25-9. The defensive play of George Dyer helped in the winning cause as "Juice" Moore and "Moe" Peters teamed up for two touchdowns through the air.

Greenfield met its Waterloo when they played a Westfield eleven led by Paul Gallo. "Greenie" followers thought the team would be on a scoring spree as they went over the first time they got the ball, but they did not keep up the pace and lost, 38-6.

The Taptowners were handed their second defeat of the season by Holyoke. The game was bitterly fought all the way and was not decided until the closing minutes. The hard running of "Sonny" Allen was outstanding. The blocking and defensive play of John Rodd and Frank Kelly helped on many plays.

The twice defeated and once tied Green Wave, inspired by the injury of "Moe" Peters in the Holyoke game, ended the season with a record breaking win over Turners Falls by a 20-0 score.

"Kenny" Salisiewski, filling in for "Moe", played a great game in a difficult position. "Tony" Sturtevant ended his high school football career by dashing 60 yards for a touchdown, and Paul O'Connor, also a senior, played a rugged game. Bob Macko once again proved his worth with his blocking and tackling.

BOYS' VARSITY BASKETBALL

Standing — Ronald LaPalme, Lawrence Warshawsky, Kenneth Salisiewski, Howard Burns, Louis Iorio, John Germain, Coach Danny Dyer.

WITH a few veterans as a nucleus "Danny" Dyer molded a very aggressive and fast basketball team for Greenfield High School, which had a good record of 12 victories and seven defeats. At the beginning of the season the team held its own, and they improved a great deal as the season went on. The highlight of the season was the defeat of the Westfield Bombers on the home court. The all-round play of "Tony" Sturtevant, "Ken" Saleski and "Len" Harris was noted throughout this upset. This was the first time that Greenfield had beaten Westfield in twenty years.

One of the most exciting games ever to be witnessed in the Greenfield High Gym was the game with Holyoke. The game went into overtime and was not decided until the final minute when Holyoke scored a basket. "Babe" Gochinski, "Juice" Moore, "Louie" Iorio, and "Moe" Peters played brilliantly in taking the ball off the back-boards and setting up plays. The feats of the second team show that Greenfield should and will have winning ball teams in the future.

UNDER the capable leadership of Captain Gloria Petrin, the patient coaching of Miss Dorothy F. Johnson, and the fine management of Dorothy Comins, the Greenfield girls completed another successful season.

On a pass from Captain Petrin, Mary Donovan scored the first goal of the season at Keene, N. H. This game resulted in a one-all deadlock. Barbara Hendrick and "Billie" Harvey were defensive standouts throughout the game for the "Green Wave".

Although there was outstanding defense work on the part of "Needle" Cotton, Sheila Dunnigan, and "Sunny" Jackson, Gardner High School, an experienced team, proved to be too much for the "Greenies" for Gardner swept to a 4-0 victory.

Despite "Julie" Akey's 50 yard scoring solo dash the Greenies lost a slam bang thriller in Keene's return game 4-3. Eleanor Smiley scored Greenfield's second goal unassisted, with "Jewel" Akey again coming into the spot light by scoring on a pass from Captain Petrin. The backs, Irene Thouin, Shirley Aiston, and "Liz" Meyers stole the show in the second half completely out-playing the opposing forwards.

Another unassisted solo dash in the closing seconds by "Jewel" Akey resulted in a goal which broke a 1-all deadlock to give Greenfield a 2-1 victory over a highly favored Gardner High School team. "Katie" Erisman, playing her best game of the season both defensively and on the attack, scored Greenfield's first goal in an assist from Captain Petrin.

The brilliant defensive playing of "Dot" Akey and Goalie "Chick" Coughlin resulted in winding up the season with a 1-0 victory over Wilmington High School.

The scores of these games are as follows:

Greenfield	1 — 1	Keene
	0 — 4	Gardner

WESTERN MASS. CHAMPIONS

THE Greenfield High School girls well earned their Western Mass. basketball title by having been undefeated in fifteen straight games. This was due to the capable leadership of Co-Captains Anne Coughlin and Juliette Akey, the outstanding spirit and teamwork shown by each player, the excellent management of "Katie" Erisman, and chiefly the expert coaching of Dorothy Johnson.

With accurate shooting and an unbreakable zone defense, the "Greenies" won each of their fifteen games by a wide margin. The average points per game, which was 38.8, has beaten all records set by any Greenfield girls' team. Greenfield's outstanding guards held their opponents to an average of 16.1 points per game. The records set by this aggressive team will always be remembered in the history of Greenfield High School.

A DRUMMER OF ACCURACY

Even early in GTD "Greenfield" history, the idea of service to users was considered of prime importance. It was not enough to build a better tap or die. It was necessary to show how these new tools would cut more accurate threads. In a sense, these early GTD "Greenfield" pioneers, travelling around the country by horse and buggy, were salesmen of accuracy.

In the same tradition of service is GTD "Greenfield's" large staff of field engineers today, located in every industrial center in America. With ever better threading tools goes ever increasing knowledge of how to use them for best results.

The "Little Giant" Screw Plate, introduced in the 1870's, set a standard for accuracy and strength in cutting screw threads by hand which has never been surpassed. In use today all over the world, the "Little Giant" Die consists of a two-piece, bevel-sided die that fits into corresponding bevels in a collet and is held in place by a guide.
